ABOUT THE BOOK:

Paintbox Press is pleased to announce the publication of Derby Day, a pop-up book designed to delight and inform horse lovers and racing fans of all ages.

Every year, millions of people share in the excitement of watching the world's fastest horses as they race to be first to cross the finish line at Churchill Downs. Derby Day tells the story of horse racing from horse farm to race track in eight pop-up scenes. This imaginative and interactive book operates on several levels. Colorful illustrations and a short narrative printed in red on each page provide a simple overview for children. For adults or more advanced readers, the book contains a wealth of behind the scenes information about Derby history and traditions. Surprises await on each page. Fan through an enclosed "flip-book" to see how a horse moves at the gallop. Listen to the bugler's call as the race is about to begin on a mini-CD included in the book.

Derby Day is both a fun introduction to the sport of horse racing and a keepsake to be treasured for years to come.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Pamela Pease is an artist who lives in Chapel Hill, NC. She is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Design, Architecture and Art, and received a Master's degree in Illustration from Syracuse University. She first attended the Derby in 1973, when Secretariat set a new track record by finishing the race in less than two minutes, and has been fascinated by horses ever since. Other books by Pamela Pease include The Garden is Open (2000), and the award-winning Macy's on Parade (2002).
